2. Revision Apps

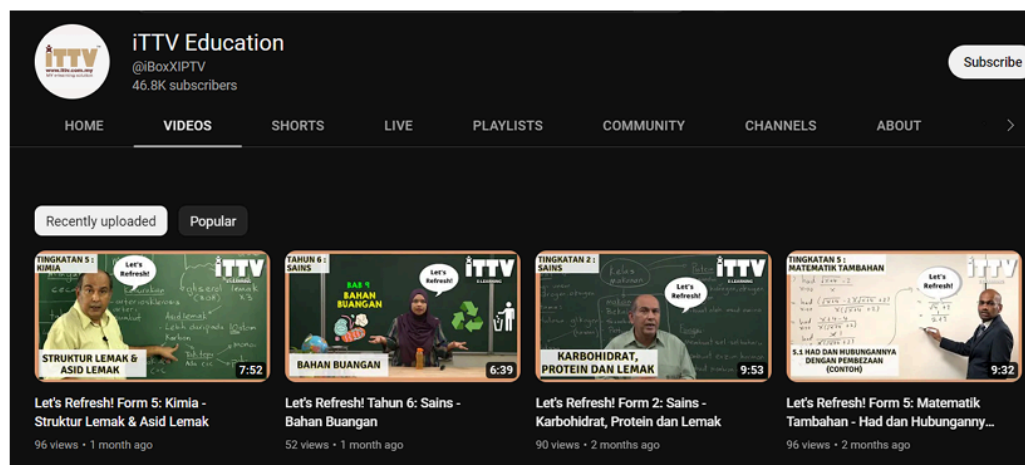

Revision apps can be a great help during your final exam preparation. Apps can allow for a more efficient and structured way of studying while also being interactive and improving retention of material. One popular app which can be used for Form 4 and Form 5 revision is: JomStudy.

It can be found on Google's Play Store here or Apple's App Store here. JomStudy provides SPM revision notes for free and is an all-in-one revision app complete with interactive tools such as quizzes and flashcards! (Certain features unlock with payment)

3. YouTube

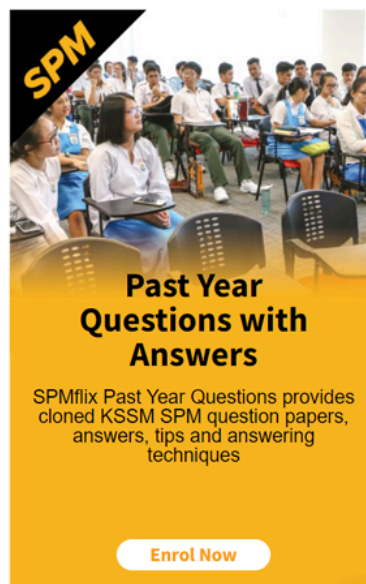

For those of you who prefer to watch videos which simulate a classroom setting, YouTube may be your best choice! One of the most popular YouTube channels for SPM Revision is called ITTV Education. Choose from a wide selection of revision videos to watch and sit back while an experienced teacher gives you bite-sized refreshers of important concepts for your SPM exams.

4. SPMFlix

For those of you who prefer face-to-face revision classes instead, SPMFlix has you covered! Every year before SPM begins, SPMFlix hosts SPM seminars to better prepare students for their upcoming exams. To see the full list of dates and details, click here. Alternatively, the SPMFlix website also provides recordings and other learning materials to help you in your learning journey.

5. SPM Trial Exams with Video Walkthroughs

SPM trial exams are usually used by students to improve their SPM preparation. It is known for some trial SPM questions to come out during the actual SPM papers. One platform that not only provides downloading of the SPM trial papers from various subjects and states, but also develops recorded video guides, in partnership with experienced teachers, showing you step-by-step answering techniques, can be found in edukaji.my.

One key advantage student will gain from using EduKaji is the ability to sort the videos by chapters of a particular subject, in order to sharpen areas where they are weak. Here are the quick links to EduKaji's FREE resources:
