1. Anti-Bribery and Corruption Policy Statement

- 1.1 FINCO is committed to the highest standards of ethical conduct, good governance and transparency in carrying out its business and has established an ABAC Policy to uphold its zero tolerance position on bribery and corruption.
- 1.2 The Board of Directors and Senior Management are committed to implementing and enforcing these measures to counter bribery and corruption which are punishable offences under the Malaysian anti-bribery and corruption laws.
- 1.3 All policies apply to FINCO and its stakeholders who include the directors, employees, business associates, members of the public (where relevant) and all parties involved directly or indirectly in FINCO's operations. These policies are aligned to the Guidelines on Adequate Procedures issued pursuant to Section 17A(5) of the MACC Act 2009.
- 1.4 Any breach of this Policy by an Associated Person may give rise to disciplinary action which could include the termination of employment and/or business relationship (as the case may be), apart from criminal liabilities resulting from the contravention of relevant laws.

2. Purpose

- 2.1 This Policy is intended to:
  - 2.1.1 set out guidance on how to manage bribery and corruption risks and ensure that any action in relation to bribery, conflict of interest, malpractice or abuse of power can be effectively addressed; and
  - 2.1.2 ensure compliance with all applicable anti-corruption regulatory requirements when conducting business.
- 2.2 This document should be read alongside FINCO's policies on Whistleblowing, Procurement and Limits of Authority for further guidance on disclosures and control measures.

disciplinary, civil or criminal nature, whether or not already instituted, and including the exercise or the forbearance from the exercise of any right or any official power or duty; and

5.5.7 any offer, undertaking or promise, whether conditional or unconditional, of any gratification within the meaning of any of the preceding paragraphs (a) to (f).

5.6 Bribery and corruption may be in a variety of forms, many of which are detailed in this policy with a non-exhaustive list of examples summarised below:

Types of Bribery & Corruption	Control Measures
Gifts, Entertainment & Hospitality	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Only permissible gifts are allowed. Acceptance of all permissible gifts from a third party must first be declared and approval from FINCO Management must be sought prior to usage;</li> <li>• It is limited in terms of value (threshold of RM50), frequency, customary and lawful; and</li> <li>• Proper care and judgement must be carried out before providing and receiving entertainment and corporate hospitality as it may result in undue influence on a party in exchange for some future benefit or result.</li> </ul>
Sponsorship & Donations	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Must be in accordance with procedures as laid out in FINCO’s finance SOPs; and</li> <li>• Refuse or decline professionally if the external parties offer any sponsorship or donations (e.g. sponsoring staff activities such as team building, annual dinner, family day, etc.).</li> </ul>
Facilitation Payments	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Be cautious and consider the purpose of such payments and whether the payment amount is reasonable for those goods or services; and</li> <li>• Request a receipt that describes the purpose of the payment.</li> </ul>

6. Gifts, Entertainment and Hospitality

6.1 A gift connotes the giving or receiving of gifts with intention to influence the recipient’s judgement and/or decision or with the expectation of an exchange for a favour and/or benefit.

6.2 Good judgement should be exercised to ensure that the acceptance of a gift or entertainment will not result in a conflict of interest when seen in the context of employment or association with FINCO.

6.3 We recognise that the exchange of business courtesies, such as modest gifts, hospitality and entertainment particularly during festive periods, may strengthen legitimate business relationships.

6.4 When deciding whether gifts or hospitality are reasonable, the recipient should consider the nature and purpose of the gift, transparency in the giving of the gift and how it may be perceived by others.

- 6.5 Gifts either given or received by FINCO above the value of RM50 should be declared to the CEO using the Gift and Hospitality Form (FINCO employees and Education Partners only) and should be returned if not approved.
- 6.6 The receipt of more than six (6) gifts under the value of RM 50 per calendar year from a single or multiple source should be declared using the Gift and Hospitality Form (FINCO employees and Education Partners only) and should be returned if not approved.
- 6.6 In no circumstances should Associated Persons solicit or give gifts or entertainment of a value that could influence third parties in their business dealings with FINCO.
- 6.7 Employees or Associated Persons should not give or receive gifts to public officials in accordance with Pekeliling Perkhidmatan Bilangan 3 Tahun 1998 to avoid conflicts of interest, bribery, or the perception of compromised impartiality. In circumstances where gifts are deemed appropriate, such as ceremonies, they should not exceed the value of RM50, as per FINCO policy.
- 6.7 The following provides broad guidance on permissible and non-permissible gifts.

Examples of permissible gifts

- Gift token of nominal value bearing the organisation's logo and deemed to be part of the organisation's branding or promotional activities;
- Gifts such as flowers or food hampers especially during festive seasons;
- Meals or entertainment that serve as legitimate business activities and are infrequent, and of a reasonable value;
- Complimentary invitation by business associates for conferences, seminars and training which relates to business activities; and
- Corporate gifts or documented honorariums from FINCO in relation to Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) programmes.

Examples of non-permissible gifts

- Cash or cash equivalents (cheques, money orders, and gift vouchers);
- Travel-related expenses or accommodation except for justified legitimate business travel;
- Paid holidays including transport, accommodation or a holiday package;
- Items for personal use including jewellery, bags, clothing, IT equipment; and
- Paid club membership, sports activities or complimentary tickets.

7. Facilitation Payments and Kickbacks

- 7.1 "Facilitation Payments" are defined as payments made to secure or expedite the performance by a person performing a routine or administrative duty or function. "Kickbacks" are typically payments made in return for a business favour or advantage.
- 7.2 FINCO prohibits facilitation payments or kickbacks and any attempts at solicitation of such from third parties must be reported through the Whistleblowing policy.

8. Donations and Sponsorship

- 8.1 Associated Persons of FINCO are prohibited from making donations or sponsorship that could be perceived as bribery or payments to gain an improper business advantage.
- 8.2 Due diligence must be carried out on Associated Persons who are recipients of donations and sponsorship to ensure that they do not act as a platform for illegal activities and that funds are not used as a cover for bribery or to circumvent or avoid any of the Malaysian bribery and corruption laws. Due Diligence may include background checks and verification of company status, track record and documentation.
- 8.3 If at any point during the due diligence process, there are conflicts of interest or 'red flags' are raised (including close ties with decision makers, poor references, convoluted payment arrangements, inadequate documentation) these must be investigated before further engagement with third parties.
- 8.4 All donations and sponsorships must receive the necessary authorisations and be evidenced and supported by relevant documents, including a request letter and/ or agreement.
- 8.5 No monetary or in-kind political donations are permitted.

9. Due Diligence

- 9.1. Third party service providers should be made aware of FINCO's stance on ABAC, with those whose services amount to more than RM10k per annum, completing a full due diligence form. The due diligence form includes a link to the ABAC Policy, and service providers are required to read the policy and declare that they have completed the reading.
- 9.2. FINCO should avoid doing business with, or having any affiliation with, parties who fail to accept the organisation's core values and policies, or parties who may harm the company's reputation.

10. Record Keeping

- 10.1. FINCO shall ensure that financial records and other key documentation, including ABAC-related policies and documentation are retained for a minimum of seven (7) years, and kept in compliance with internal controls and as evidence of the business reasons for any payment made or received.
- 10.2. Associated Persons should ensure that expense claims for gifts, entertainment or hospitality provide detailed reasons for expenditure and evidence of the required approvals by an authorised person.
- 10.3. All accounts, invoices and other documents relating to business engagements with third parties, must be prepared and maintained with strict accuracy and completeness.

11. Updates and Review

- 11.1. FINCO recognises the importance of ongoing review and assessment of this policy to identify gaps, strengthen control measures and ensure compliance with new laws and regulations.
- 11.2. Reviews shall be undertaken as follows:

- 11.2.1 on an annual basis by FINCO Senior Management with the review date documented on the policy, and reported to the FINCO Audit Committee.
- 11.2.2 As agreed with the Audit Committee, by Internal Auditors, reporting to the FINCO Audit Committee.
- 11.3. Audit results must be reported to the Board to ensure they are fully informed of the processes and control measures implemented by the Company.
- 11.4. The Company may take disciplinary action against any Associated Person found to be non-compliant with the ABAC policy.
- 11.5. This policy should be reviewed annually and may be updated from time to time, with new clauses communicated to the relevant parties and approved by the Board of Directors . Review and approval dates to be recorded on this document.

12. Training and Communication

- 12.1. New staff shall be provided with anti-bribery and corruption training within the first month of their employment.
- 12.2. Employees and other relevant parties shall be provided with annual anti-bribery and corruption training to ensure familiarity with this policy and the associated laws and regulations.
- 12.3. After each training, Employees and other relevant parties should be asked to sign a Declaration of Understanding Form.
- 12.4. Associated Persons should be made aware of their obligations of anti-bribery and corruption laws and of the appropriate channels for making disclosures relating to misconduct.
- 12.5. A link to this policy shall remain permanently accessible to all stakeholders via the official company website and standard employee email signatures.
